

Malaysian Family Physician 2006. Volume 1, Number 1

1975, Volume 2, Number 1&2

Past and present trends in the development of psychiatric services in Peninsular Malaysia. Syed M Haq.	4
Diagnosis in mental illness. CL Teoh.	10
Schizophrenia – early diagnosis. Deva Dass.	13
Schizophrenia – management in the community in Malaysia. D Dass, S Param Palam.	15
Anxiety neurosis in an urban general practice. Lee Bian Swee.	18
Editorial. The general practitioner in psychiatric care. Lee Bian Swee.	27
Editorial. The changing role of the family practitioner in obstetrics and gynaecology. Frank Tan.	30
The small-for-dates baby – the family practitioners' role. Frank Tan.	32
The small-for-dates baby – foetal monitoring at the hospital. Khairuddin Yusof.	35
Small-for-dates infants – paediatric problems. EL Lee.	38
Hormonal therapy in obstetrics and gynaecology. TA Sinnathuray.	40
The Pap smear. Lim Swee Eng.	43
Choice of drugs in pregnancy – a critical review. Frank Tan.	48
Report from the Council.	52
Foundation members: Rules and procedures governing the use of the letters MCGP.	55