

Malaysian Family Physician 2006. Volume 1, Number 1

1977, Volume 2, Number 6

Medical emergencies and the general practitioner. James Lau.	4
Emergency management of the coronary patient. RA Catterall.	5
The primary management of hypertensive crisis. T Underwood.	8
Cardiac syncope: mechanisms, diagnosis and treatment. Joseph Eravelly.	13
Pitfalls in the management of gynaecological emergencies. Frank Tan.	20
Thyrotoxicosis in pregnancy. HC Ong.	25
In vitro antibiotic sensitivities of some clinical isolates to bekanamycin sulphate and some other commonly used antibiotics. M Jegathesan.	29

1977, Volume 2, Number 7

Editorial. Still focusing on medical emergencies. James Lau.	4
Management of anaphylaxis. MK Rajakumar.	6
Primary care of convulsions in childhood. M Kumaradeva.	11
Cardiac arrhythmias. SS Gill.	14
Major psychiatric emergencies and their management. Mary Lee.	18
Involvement of the physician in national family planning programme. LS Sothy.	21
Breastfeeding – the natural immunization. Teoh Soong Kee.	25
Clinical trial with oral clindamycin. M Vijendran, KA Menon.	28

1977, Volume 2, Number 8 (Proceedings of Third Combined Conference, 8-11 September 1977)

Message from Chairman Organising Committee of Convention 77. Mohd Din Ahmad.	5
Message from Chairman of Council. MK Rajakumar.	7
The delivery of primary care:
The importance of primary care. MK Rajakumar.	11
The "processes" and content of general practice. NE Carson.	13
Primary care in the rural areas. Raj Karim.	18
The doctor, his patients and the community. DJ Dobson.	26
Experience with a general practitioner hospital. PH Robinson.	28
Priorities in community health care in developing countries. SH Naqvi.	31
Some thoughts on delivery of health care in a developing country. S Param Palam.	32
Health education in the community:
People, behavioural patterns and disease problems. Paul CY Chen.	36
Preventive health education in sexually transmitted diseases. VS Rajan.	39
Who should educate whom and how? D Watson, R Watson.	44
Education in breast feeding. Ruby Majeed.	47
The family practitioner's role in sex education. Frank EH Tan.	49
Health education in general practice. R Balasundaram.	52
Prickly heat - the commonsense cure. AB McKay.	56
Health education for the community. MK Mak.	60
Education for breast feeding:
Towards a new role for the infant food industry. SCE Abraham.	61
Modern influences on the breast feeding decision. Mary Lee.	64
The hospital factor on breastfeeding failure. MK Rajakumar.	67
Sex education:
VD in sex education. Low Bin Tick.	107
Conjoint marital sex therapy: a case report. TH Woon.	109
Young people and venereal disease. James Lau.	68
The general practitioner and sex education. EK Koh.	69
Clinical problems in general practice:
Management of asymptomatic proteinuria. Abu Bakar Suleiman.	71
Diagnostic problems in general practice. R Balasundaram.	73
Emergency medicine in general practice. RA Catterall.	78
Acupuncture in office practice. Liew Fu San.	80
Clinical conference:
The recognition of emotional illness in general practice. Alan Chancellor.	88
Recent advances in dermatology. JY Liao.	91
Low back pain. Shafqat Ali Khan.	92
Problem oriented medical recording system for general practice. S Param Palam.	94
Common problems of Obs-Gyn practice in Bangkok. Prapar Khovidhungif.	100
The clinical problems of the general practitioner and multiple concurrent pathologies. AB McKay.	101
Emergency medicine:
Primary care of convulsions in childhood. M Kumaradeva.	106